

Japanese Course for Foreign Exchange Students Syllabus

Class Name	Japanese V (C) [Knowing Today's Japan]
Offered Semester	Spring Semester
Topic	Give presentations in Japanese on aspects learned about Japan and Japanese people
Class Outline	Students will give presentations in Japanese about new aspects of Japanese culture found after arriving in Japan, or about aspects that may have turned out different from their initial expectations. Practical tasks are required to be done individually, in pairs or in groups. Students are encouraged to practice their Japanese with Japanese people, this can be with staff and students from Aichi University, or people they have met outside the university. Students are expected to prepare their presentation by PowerPoint slides.
Objectives	The aim of this class is to perform a presentation using effective Japanese considering the audience and information presented are required to expand for discussions after the presentation.
Class Format	Lectures