

Japanese Course for Foreign Exchange Students Syllabus

Class Name	Japanese I (B) [Grammar/Reading Comprehension I]
Offered Semester	Fall Semester
Topic	Learning intermediate level Japanese grammar and expression, and master reading comprehension skills.
Class Outline	This class is for students that have finished learning basic Japanese grammar and the 100 words of basic Kanji and also has achieved four skills within beginners' level. This class aims to develop student's 4 skills (Listen/Talk/Read/Write) up to intermediate level by learning Japanese grammar and expression, and master reading comprehension skills. Grammar exercises require students to think and answer sentences which meanwhile extends to conversation practices.
Objectives	Achieve intermediate level Japanese grammar and understand general information by reading different types and topics of texts. Constant speaking and writing practices help students consolidate their understanding of previously studied areas and in mastering new contents.
Class Format	Lectures